

OUR STORY

- 1998
Rogue Valley Children's Discovery Museum is established.
- 2002
The Mobile Museum goes on the road with a vision and a passion.
- 2005
The first brick and mortar Children's Museum is established in the Moose Lodge building.
- 2011
Children's Museum moves to the JC Penny building in Downtown Medford becoming the Kid Time Children's Museum.
- 2014
The Learning Loft preschool is established and operates within the Kid Time Children's Museum.
- 2019
Kid Time secures a long term lease for the historic Carnegie Library from the City of Medford.
- 2020-2021
The Learning Loft preschool, renamed The Ivy School, moves to the Carnegie Library. The Ivy School operates six preschool classrooms and supports K-5th distance learning during worldwide pandemic.
- 2022
The Children's Museum of Southern Oregon, formerly Kid Time, opens to the public with all new exhibits. The Children's Museum and the Ivy School formally move under the umbrella organization, Oregon Center for Creative Learning.
- 2023
The Outdoor Adventure opens, doubling the exhibit space at The Children's Museum. The Ivy School operates 11 classrooms in eight different locations in the Rogue Valley.
- 2024
The OCCL is awarded the Dutch Bros' Grants Pass headquarters building to expand the reach of the OCCL programs to serve Josephine County.
- 2025
The OCCL runs two Capital Campaigns concurrently to support the Medford location expansion and to fund the creation of the Grants Pass location.
- FUTURE
The OCCL continues to inspire young minds and bring the community together to engage in learning through play.